	11	NOTE: The Dictionary of National Biography Eng. Pub. A, v. 23, p. 304 claims the above Gruffydd had children illegitimately in addition to the ones by the above wife; however, in Wales Engl. 1, p. 309, it states he had the two additional wives shown above and indicates their children. It is not certain whether they were actually wives in the correct sense, or whether they were more in the status of concubines.
	12	On the 19th Sept. 1941 a Mareda, Nest and Morfydd were sealed to the above couple. From all sources quoted above, however, there are no such daughters mentioned. There is a possibility that Mareda may have been mistaken for Merinedd, but temple work was done for both names as daughters of Gruffydd ap Cynan and Perisair for Merinedd and daughter of above for Merinedd. Nevertheless Merinedd is a daughter of Angharad.
	13	It is claimed that Reinalt, wife of Madog ap Idnerth, was a daughter of Gruffydd ap Cynan, Prince of North Wales, and a sister of Gwenllian mother of Lord Rhys, therefore it is assumed that Reinalt must be the daughter of Angharad by Gruffydd ap Cynan whose name is not mentioned in the above sources. See family group sheet of Madog ap Idnerth.
