

Ethel H. Houtz burial here

Funeral for Ethel Hall Houtz, 94, of Stockton, who died Thursday, March 11, 1976 in a Tooele hospital of causes incident to age was Monday at 2 p.m. at the Wheeler Mortuary in Springville.

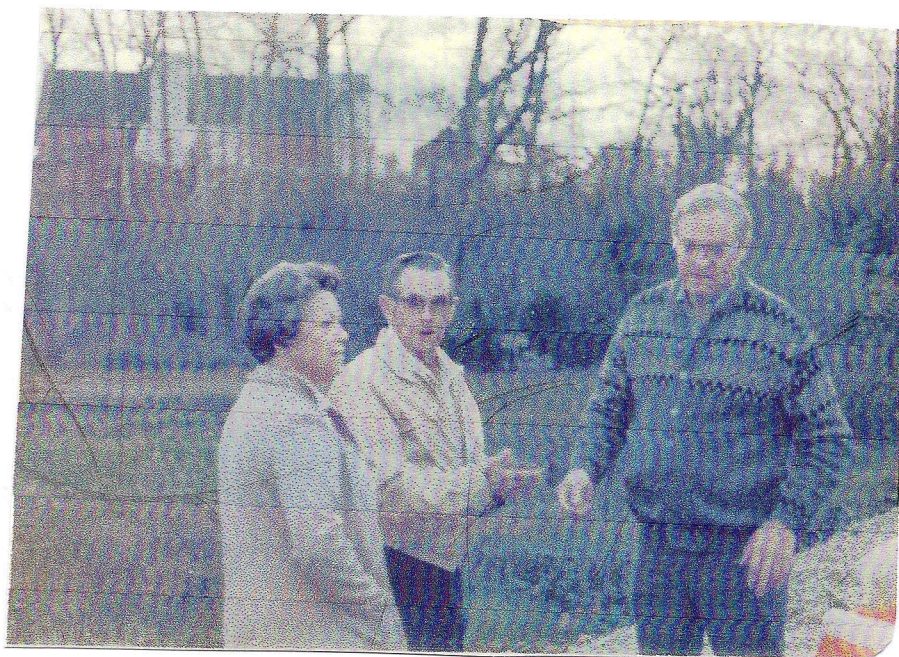

Burial was in Springville Evergreen Cemetery.

Mrs. Houtz was born in Springville on June 10, 1881 to William I. and Lydia Thorn Hall. She married Jacob A. Houtz on Jan. 11, 1905 in Provo, and he died in 1947.

Mrs. Houtz received her education in Springville schools. She had lived in Indianola, Sanpete County, for many years where she was the postmistress and operated a store. She was also a midwife.

She was a member of the Church. She had lived in Salt Lake City and Grantsville, Tooele County, before moving to Stockton.

Survivors include two sons, J.C. Houtz, Stockton; Harold L. Houtz, Anchorage, Alaska, and two grandchildren.

Jane & Clyde Wheeler

Clifton Hall