

Patriarchal Blessing given to Joseph Elwood Hall
by Hyrum G. Smith

Brother Joseph E. Hall according to thy desire I place my hands upon your head and as the Spirit of the Lord directs me I give unto thee a Patriarchal blessing which will be a comfort and a guide to they life. Thou art of the Lineage of Ephraim, and thus for in life the Lord has been pleased with thy devotions His service and He has preserved thee from the designs of the adversary and has also blessed thee with many precious opportunities. It is thy privilege to "I " and finish thy mission on the earth, and if thou wilt continue to acknowledge the hand of the Lord in the blessings. He will bless and prosper thy labors, and give thee health and courage and wisdom sufficient to perform thy daily duties, and He will give the joy and satisfaction in thy labors. It is thy right to enjoy the spirit of discernment through which thou wilt be enabled to choose thy proper course in life, and to choose between right and wrong and between safety and danger, and to avoid danger and temptations of evil. It is thy privilege also when called upon to officiate in many of the sacred ordinances of the gospel, and when thou art called to lay hands on the sick, and to pray for their recovery thy prayers will be heard and answered, therefore put thy trust in the Lord and fail not to acknowledge His hand, and He will bless thee with the gifts of the gospel that will qualify thee for thy labors. It will also be thy privilege to hold important civil positions through which thou wilt gain influence for the good among thy fellows, and in answer to thy prayers, thy heart shall be handed down in honorable remembrance from generation to generation.

This blessing I seal upon thy head through thy faithfulness and I seal thee up into eternal life, to come forth in the resurrection of the just, with thy kindred and many friends, a saviour in the House of Israel, by virtue of the Holy Priesthood and in the name of Jesus Christ.

Amen
