A RECORD OF ENLISTMENT SUCCESS

In the Fourth Ward in Springville, in the Kolob Stake, some very effective work has been done, in response to the suggestion to the General Board on enlistment work.

On reading about these suggestions, two years ago, the Superintendent appointed Sister Maggie H. Wood to take charge of the plan, with Sister Frankie N. Averett as secretary. Then they went to work.

A complete census was made of the ward, including also non-members of the Church. The information called for the name, the address, membership, priesthood, if any, and organization preferred. These cards were then arranged alphabetically, and recorded in a loose-leaf book. Three cards were made out—white for inactive, yellow for active, and pink for excused. For the inactive, however, there were three cards—one for the permanent files, one for assignment, and one for the assignment file. Assignment cards were handed out to teachers from the Church, History class and up. As nearly as possible, persons to be visited were chosen close to the home of the visiting teacher, so as to lessen the work. Assignments were checked once a month. All visitors were received at the door Sunday morning by a member of the committee.

Many uses were found for the information. At promotion time there was no trouble or confusion, as every pupil was advanced according to his age. The lists were checked by the Relief Society, the Old Folks' Committee, the Missionary Committee, the Priesthood Committee, the M. I. A. and the Primary, and thus every member of the ward was taken care of, not only by the Sunday School, but by other organizations also. In some cases unbaptized children were located and brought into the Church by the missionaries.

Thus the information gathered by the Sunday School enlistment committee was a means of stimulating action on the part of everyone.

Sisters Wood and Averett are to be commended for their method and diligence in enlistment work.

Children Invited To Park Fri. For Story Telling

A special treat is in store for all children between the ages of 5 and 12 years of age Friday at the city park with the recreation leaders.
