

PALMER LINEAGE OF ELIZABETH M. RINFORD

Arranged by W. ROSS COOPER and FRANCES JACKSON BALDWIN

Reference: Burke, "Extinct Peerages," 1831, pp. 555-557.

1. WILLIAM DE WARREN, created Earl of Surrey, d. 1088; m. Gundreda, said to be a daughter of William the Conqueror. (Mrs. Baldwin says no real evidence of her paternity.) Their 1st son:
2. WILLIAM DE WARREN, 2nd Earl of Surrey, created Earl of Warren, d. 1138; m. (her 2) m.) Isabel, dau. of Prince Hugh the Great, b. 1057; d. 1102. Killed in battle; Crusade commander, 1096. Their 1st son:
3. WILLIAM DE WARREN III, 3rd Earl of Surrey, 2nd Earl of Warren; d. in prison, 1147; m. Ada, dau. of Sir William de Talvas. Their only dau. and child:
4. ISABEL DE WARREN, m. after 1162, Hameline (natural son of Sir Geoffrey de Plantagenet) who took the name of Warren. Their son:
5. WILLIAM DE WARREN IV, d. 1240; m. Maud (widow of Hugh Bigod, M. C. B.), dau. of William Marshall, Crusader, 1183; b. 1153; d. 1219; and Isabel, dau. of Richard de Clare, Strongbow, and Elizabeth Beaumont. Their son:
6. SIR JOHN DE WARREN, m. Alice, dau. of Hugh le Brun and Isabel de Taillefer. Their son:
7. SIR WILLIAM DE WARREN V, m. Joan, dau. of Sir Robert de Vere and Alice de Saunford. (Magna Charta line). Their dau. (Gibbs, "Complete Peerage," Vol. 3, p. 335; Burke, "Extinct Peerages," 1831, pp. 197-200, 535-536):
8. ALICE DE WARREN, m. 1305, Sir Edmund Fitz-Alan, 8th Earl of Arundell Castle, b. 1285; d. 1326; beheaded. He received the escheated estates and lands of Sir John Mowbray and the Badlesmere estates. Their son:
9. SIR RICHARD FITZ-ALAN II, b. 1306; d. 1375. 9th Earl of Arundell, and became 7th Earl of Surrey, via his mother. He m. (2) 1344, Eleanor, dau. of Henry Plantagenet and Maud Chaworth (a widow of Lord Beaumont). Their 1st child, a dau.:
10. ALICE FITZ-ALAN, was affianced to Edmund Mortimer in 1334, but m. (1) Sir Thomas Holland, Earl of Kent. (Per Vincent upon "Brooke," p. 27, who states that she had a natural (Base) daughter by Henry Bufort. Viz., Sir Henry Bufort, later became a Cardinal.)
11. JANE, m. Edward Stradling, of St. Donats. (Per Dalloway, Sanford and la Neve, all of whom state that Jane was a natural daughter of Henry Bufort, who later became a Cardinal.) (Per Collinson, Topographer and Genealogy, Pub., 1840, Vol. 6, p. 20.) (Clark, "Glamorganshire," p. 35). Their only legitimate son:
12. SIR HARRY STRADLING, m. Elizabeth, dau. of Sir William ap Thomas Herbert, of Raglan. She was a full sister of the Earl of Pembroke. Their son:
13. SIR THOMAS STRADLING, of St. Donats, d. 1480; m. Elizabeth, dau. of Thomas Mathew, of Radyr. Their son:
14. SIR EDWARD STRADLING, d. 152—; m. Elizabeth, dau. of St. Thomas Arundell. Their dau.:
15. CATHERINE STRADLING, m. Sir Thomas Palmer, Knight, of Sussex; d. 1583. Of their children, a son:
16. JOHN PALMER, of Parham, m. Elizabeth, heiress of Sir Henry Verney, of Fairfield Parish, Somerset. Their dau., Catherine. (Berry, "Sussex," p. 207; Collins, "Baronetage," Vol. I, p. 437 and Vol. II, p. 87.) They also had a son:
17. <sup>bro. of William</sup> WALTER PALMER, of Sussex, England, b. 1585; d. 1661/2. Came to Massachusetts, 1628. Walter Palmer m. (2) Rebecca Short. He purchased 1,200 acres of land in 1651; moved to Stonington, Conn. Their dau.:
18. HANNAH, b. June 16, 1634; m. Thomas Hewitt, d. ca. 1662, in 1659. Their son:
19. THOMAS HEWITT II, b. —; d. —; m. —. Their son:
20. THOMAS HEWITT III, b. —; d. —; m. —. Their dau.:
21. LYDIA HEWITT, b. —; d. Nov. 14, 1765; m. Isaac Lawrence, b. Feb. 25, 1704/5; d. Dec., 1793. Whose son:
22. ISAAC LAWRENCE, JR., of New Canaan, Conn., m. May 8, 1760, Mary, dau. of Deacon Samuel Brown. Their dau.:

973

D 2nd sup.
(B13B3)

Supp