Annette Ross Is Wed In Temple Ceremonies

MRS. ALLAN P. HALL
(Annette Ross)

A ceremony solemnized Thursday morning at the Salt Lake Temple, with Spencer W. Kimball of the Council of Twelve Apostles officiating, made Annette Ross, daughter of Mrs. Freda M. Ross of Provo, the bride of Allan P. Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theron S. Hall of Springville.

In the evening of the same day the young couple received the well wishes of friends at a wedding reception in the Ninth-19th Ward chapel.

The bride was beautifully gowned in her straight line wedding gown of pure silk which was made especially for her in Brazil. Adding a detail note was the yoke and sleeve of French Alencon lace. A cluster of white rosebuds and orange blossoms touched the center yoke. She also wore a bar of orange blossoms on her hair and a veil of bridal illusion which flared from the back. She held a single long-stemmed white rose.

Attending the bride were Norma Turnbow, Linda Taylor and two of her sisters, Mrs. Max Johnson and Mrs. Debra Zenger. They wore gowns of chiffon print over blue taffeta. They added a corsage of white chrysanthemums.

Ken Morrison served the bridegroom as his best man. Carl Marlow acted as usher.

The wedding party stood before a white trellis intertwined with flowers for the receiving, and tall arrangements of yellow gladiolus added a pretty note to the decor.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall will be at home in Provo.
