

MRS. EDDA KENDALL

SPRINGVILLE. — Funeral services for Mrs. Edda Wheeler Kendall, 33, wife of Lloyd Kendall, who died Friday at a Salt Lake hospital following an operation, will be held Tuesday at 2 p.m., in the Fourth Ward Chapel, under direction of the bishopric.

The speakers will be S. L. Mendenhall, Jr., Howard Salisbury, and Bishop Joseph Argyle of Daniels Ward, Provo Canyon, with Solon Wood presiding. Musical numbers will be given by Miss Hannah Rowland, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Brown and ~~Miss Dean Straw.~~

Mrs. Kendall was born in Springville, July 30, 1903, daughter of Benjamin and Edna Hall Wheeler.

She received her early education in the public schools of this city, later graduating from the Brigham Young University at Provo. Prior to her marriage to Lloyd Kendall, March 14, 1931, she taught school at Tooele, Bingham Canyon, Price and in Idaho.

She was active in Church work, having served as a teacher in the Fourth Ward Sunday School in this city, and later as literary leader in the Relief Society, and as Bee-Keeper in the M. I. A., in Heber City, where she recently made her home.

Surviving besides her husband are a daughter, Kay Kendall, 5 years old, and her mother, Mrs. Edna Wheeler and two brothers, Bert and Clyde Wheeler, Springville. Friends may call at the Benjamin Wheeler home on East Second North Street, prior to the services. Interment will be in the Evergreen Cemetery.
