Joseph Solon Wood, or J.S. as we called him, was born in Provo, June 2, 1925.
His eyes were blue at a baby, but at twelve years of age they were brown.
He had brown hair and a perfect body.
When examined at school, at the age of ten, the doctor said he had a perfect body. Only one tooth a little out of line was the only defect.
At three years of age, talked and sings like a lark.
Always says his prayers. Had tonsils removed in Dec. of 1927.
Very patient. Dr. Neil came at night and brought him an ice-cream cone.
When J.S. was three years old he hauled a load of straw in his little wagon from Cliff's barn. He brought it down for our chickens. While putting it in the coop, he knocked a board down and cut his leg.
